

Women's Bible Study

2008-2009

A Ministry of Autumn Ridge Church

Dear Friend,

There have been many times in my life when I needed to be inspired by the example of someone else who faced a similar challenge successfully. One who's inspired me is Joseph, from the book of Genesis, who overcame tremendous hardship and dealt with the tough issues of betrayal, temptation, and forgiveness. This fall in Women's Bible Study I want to invite you to join us in a study called "Overcoming: A Life Well Lived", based on the life of Joseph.

Women's Bible Study begins with a fall kickoff on Wednesday, September 17, which includes a brunch for the morning study (9:30 am) and a dinner for the evening study (6:30 pm), both meeting in the Common Grounds Café. A Children's Bible study and free child care is provided for the morning study, while the evening study runs in tandem with the Kids' Club program from 6:30 to 7:45 pm.

The Women's Bible Study draws so many women because it combines large group Bible study with small group friendship, discussion, and personal study. The lectures are taught by four of us with decades of teaching experience: Gretchen Steer, Lorie Dahlstrom, Michelle Harris and Jann Wright. It is our hope that you will grow closer to God and to each other through Women's Bible Study this fall as we begin our study that will help us overcome life's many and often difficult challenges.

Although there is no charge for Women's Bible Study, you will need a ticket for the kickoff events. Information on how to obtain them is listed on the reverse side. In addition, we have included other details pertaining to registration and general information for Women's Bible Study. If you have further questions please don't hesitate to contact us at wbs@autumnridgechurch.org. We look forward to seeing you on September 17.

Warmly,

Gretchen Steer, Lorie Dahlstrom, Michelle Harris, Jann Wright
