Hi Friends!

God keeps displaying his power and love for me in many ways, and one of them is through the study of the Bible. I needed a reminder this past week of the truths found in 1 Peter. I pray that you will also be stretched and will grow into more holiness!

For any of you that have a burning question after the lecture and small group time, a teaching leader will be available afterwards to try to facilitate any of their questions. We want discussions to continue and we want you to wrestle with God's word so that the truths can impact your life. Know we pray for you weekly.

#whenlifestinks has a meaning for me beyond suffering. Literally my life stinks after I walk, or work outside, or clean, or just about anything. I bought some powerful, new, wonderful smelling deodorant and it nearly knocks me out. I was expecting something gentle but it whammed me and I am scared to use it again. Hopefully you don't feel that way about this study!

We want to tackle the hard subjects, like suffering, and we are praying that your hearts will be encouraged by God's word. If for some reason you are too overwhelmed, please contact one of the teaching team and talk.

Happy "winter getting ready" !

Love,

Juli
