Dear Ladies,

Today marks the halfway point of our study of 1 Peter. I hope you have been enjoying this incredibly rich book. I am so excited to walk with you through chapter 3. It's a wonderful chapter even if it does contain a few "tangles." Those tangles will comb out beautifully, though, when we see Peter's theme that because we are motivated by what Christ did for us, we choose to live for him in a way that makes him known to other people.

Remember that we will not meet next Wednesday due to the Thanksgiving break. If you are in town, consider coming to the Thanksgiving service at church next Wednesday evening at 7pm. Not only will there be a lovely service of worship and thanksgiving, the pastors and elders will serve delicious pies afterwards.

Finally, as you regular attenders know, at the end of each semester we take a freewill offering to defray the costs of Women's Bible Study. Baskets will be available for your donations on Wed. November 29th. These offerings provide childcare, cover the costs of our handouts, and make possible the yummy treats. It has been a long-time value of this ministry to cover expenses through offerings rather than charging fees for the study and childcare, so we appreciate your generosity very much.

Your friend,
Svea
