Hi Friends!

There are a large number of promises God gave us in His Word. Many of them look great inside a greeting card or cross stitched on a pillow. Unfortunately one of the promises is one we'd like to forget...

"In this world, you will have trouble..." John 16:33

It's important we study what God's word says about suffering because whether we like it or not, suffering will happen in our lives. Satan hopes that our suffering will destroy our faith but God hopes it will strengthen it. I hope that the time you've invested in studying Job has reminded you that although we may never know the "why" of our tragedy, we can continue to trust in a good and wise God who loves us beyond compare.

Next week we will begin studying 1 Peter. This book of the Bible also deals with tragedy but with a different slant that I think will be very applicable with the culture of our day. Juli will start things off next week with teaching us on 1 Peter 1 - Holiness in Difficulty. I look forward to starting off the first day of November and seeing you then!

Until then let us not forget the important second half of John 16:33 -
In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Love, Angie
