

women's bible study

Good morning to all!

One thing I have learned by living here in Rochester is endurance! The month of February builds that in all of us. My son and his family live in Sitka, Alaska and it amazes me that I go there in January to WARM UP!!!

Today's lesson is one that I have taught a few times to groups that have latched onto the message like a life-rope. To understand who Jesus truly is brings us all to a place where we want to drink the living water only He can provide. I hope all of you can learn something new today from this powerful story.

Next Wednesday the 14th there is no Bible study due to the Ash Wednesday service to be held here at 6:30. There will be child-care for the evening service.

Have a great time in your groups. John is a powerful book!
