Hi Friends!

I am so grateful you are here! I'll be honest, when I first came to Women's Bible study many years ago, I initially came for the free coffee, great child care and just the opportunity to get out of my house. However, I got so much more out of my experience than that. I am not sure how you got here or what you are hoping for but let me encourage you that God promises that your time here studying His Word will not be wasted.

The passage we read for today shows two very different sides of Jesus - I love that because it just confirms how Jesus was anything but boring and predictable. I am praying you learn a lot about your Savior in this study. He loves you beyond compare and is hoping that you fully put your trust in Him.

Whether you root for the Vikings, Packers or Patriots, God is calling all of us to be part of his team and that is good news no matter who you root for!

Blessings!

Angie
