Hello Ladies,

Wow it was a busy weekend in the lives of the ladies of Autumn Ridge. Thank you to the many of you who volunteered by cutting fruit and vegetables, and dipping strawberries in chocolate for the over 700 students who attended the Spring Formal. Many of these were guests invited by our students. It was a great opportunity to invite students who do not usually attend church. The gospel message was presented that evening.

Also, the Spring Fling for Women was a great success as well with 250 ladies attending. Thanks to many of you for allowing the loan of your wedding dresses. It was a great night celebrating God's faithfulness in the lives of these women and a vivid reminder that he has called all of us to be his bride.

With all of this talk of spring, and a bit of an increase in temperatures, it does seem that spring is just around the corner. Our study this week is on John 11, the Raising of Lazarus from the dead. It is a powerful passage to contemplate as we look forward to Easter because it is a foreshadowing of the resurrection of Jesus.

Blessings,

Jann
